

REMARKS

Allowable Subject Matter – Claims 4-20 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

- 5 The applicant thanks the Examiner for the indication of the allowable matter. Claim 4 is amended to include all the limitations of claim 1 as was stated would be allowable by the Examiner. No new matter is added. Similarly, claim 7 is amended to include all the limitations of claim 1 as was stated would be allowable by the Examiner. Claims 1-3 are correspondingly cancelled. No new matter is entered.
- 10 Additionally, new dependent claim 22 is added being dependent upon claim 4. No new matter is entered as claim 22 is equivalent to original claim 3.
- In this way, currently amended independent claims 4 and 7 should be found allowable for at least the reasons stated by the Examiner in the Office action of 07/01/2008.
- 15 Additionally, claims 5-6 and 8-22 are dependent claims and should be found allowable for at least the same reasons as their respective base claims. Allowance of pending claims 4-22 is respectfully requested.

Conclusion:

- Thus, all pending claims are submitted to be in condition for allowance with respect to the cited art for at least the reasons presented above. The Examiner is encouraged to telephone the undersigned if there are informalities that can be resolved in a phone conversation, or if the Examiner has any ideas or suggestions for further advancing the prosecution of this case.

- 25 The applicant respectfully requests that a timely Notice of Allowance be issued in this case.
